2nd November 2026

Dear Parents and Carers,

On Monday 16th November, we will be celebrating Odd Socks Day as part of Anti-Bullying Week!

Odd Socks Day is a fun way to celebrate what makes us all unique and to remind children that everyone should feel safe, accepted and free to be themselves. It helps us to promote the important message that we should celebrate our differences and stand up against bullying.

To take part, we simply ask that children come to school wearing a pair of odd socks! These can be worn as a part of their regular school uniform on that day. There is no need to buy anything new – any two different socks will help spread the message. We look forward to seeing lots of colourful, mismatched socks around school as we celebrate being unique and being kind to one another!

This will kick-start our work on Anti-Bullying Week. Throughout the week we will be exploring this year's theme of Break the Silence, speaking up when bullying or unkind behaviour happens, even when it is hard to do so.

Thank you for your continued support,

Ingrid Dowse — Co-Headteacher

Sarah Mack — Co-Headteacher
